this book examines the translations of selected miracle stories from the hebrew bible septuagint lxx and the greek new testament into selected ghanaian mother tongues considering possible shifts of meaning that occur in translating 1kings 18 25 38 mark 9 14 29 and luke 7 11 17 are used as case studies the author draws out semiotic hermeneutical nuances of these texts as they are understood in the ghanaian context and addresses questions in the field of biblical studies concerning the relevance of intercultural hermeneutics for current trends in ghanaian christianity particularly important is the high premium placed on miracles in present day ghanaian spirituality making a careful analysis of these stories particularly relevant for the Ghanaian audience the study also explores several factors that influence the translation process and have a bearing on the reception and use of the text it follows the growing calls for a shift in African biblical hermeneutics from the theological heritage of Europe and America to the emerging theological trajectories of Africa this post colonial shift re-examines the translated text moving from what the text might have meant to what the text might mean in Africa

In this volume the author shows how the Akan concepts of sunsum and honhom offer a degree of Christian pneumatological similarity providing the avenue for translating and contextualizing the doctrine of the Holy Spirit within the context of the Akan people of West Africa

The study of the Odwira festival is the key to the understanding of Asante religious and political life in Ghana the book explores the nature of the Odwira festival longitudinally in pre colonial colonial and post independence Ghana and examines the Odwira ideology and its implications for understanding the Asante self identity the book also discusses how some elements of faith portrayed in the Odwira festival could provide a framework for Christianity to engage with Asante culture at a greater depth theological themes in Asante belief that have emerged from this study include the theology of sacrament ecclesiology eschatology Christology and a complex concept of time the author argues that Asante cultural identity lies at the heart of the process by which the Asante Christian faith is carried forward
